The BSCR and BSCS Awards are for members of the British Parachute Association only.

The Lou Johnson Memorial Awards have been introduced in memory of Lou Johnson who recorded, on film the first British Ten Man Formation. He himself closed 13th at break off altitude in 1972, which amply displayed his own flying ability. Lou died on Sunday 19th August 1973 while photographing the Royal Green Jackets.

BSCR - UNITED KINGDOM ONLY

To qualify for this award you must have taken part in an F.S. formation of at least 8 persons or larger which has been held for a minimum of 5 seconds

BSCS - UNITED KINGDOM ONLY

To qualify for this award you must have closed 8th or later on an F.S. freefall formation of 8 or larger that has been held for at least 5 seconds.

A permanent record of name and number will be held on file at the BPA Office. The cost of the Award is to cover printing, postage, Administration, badge and membership card for the award. Each award costs £10.00.
